

"Bróg Crua" to Perform at Celtic Harvest Concert

October 8, 2013 (for immediate release)

Newport, Oregon -- In celebration of the Celtic New Year and the harvest season, the Celtic Heritage Alliance announces its third annual Irish House Concert and Ceili Dance - -- "Harvest by the Sea."

The musical and dance performance will feature the return of the trio Bróg Crua including internationally renowned Sean-nós instructor, Maldon Meehan, who will demonstrate her toe tapping prowess in Irish traditional dancing and calling of the céilí (kay-lee) for guests. No prior céilí dancing experience is required - anyone can join in.

Bróg Crua reunites Irish music, song, and dance in its original context - the house concert! They combine accordion, fiddle, and dance percussion, with a good dose of Irish humor. Félim Egan, Erik Killops and Maldon Meehan invite you into their "house" to rekindle that fire that was once ablaze in the cottages of Ireland.

For a sneak preview, visit the YouTube link provided: <http://youtu.be/Yj1i220twGY>

Concert & Ceili Information:

Saturday, November 2, 2013, 6:30 pm - 9:30pm
Flowrree Community Center
(The Former Marion Harrison School)
321 SE 3rd
Toledo, Oregon

Tickets for this celebratory fundraiser may be purchased in advance online at www.newportcelticfestival.com. Prices are $15 for adults and $7 for youth aged 7-16.

The newly renovated Flowreee Community Center in Toledo will offer a roomy venue for both guests who wish to sit and enjoy the music or who wish to take to the dance floor. Snacks and beverages will be available for purchase.

The Celtic Heritage Alliance (CHA) is a §501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to promoting local cultural awareness and events derived from the seven Celtic Nations: Scotland, Wales, Ireland, Brittany, Galicia, the Isle of Man and Cornwall.

For more information concerning the "Harvest by the Sea" concert and other CHA events, please contact Entertainment Director Susan Spencer at 541.574.9366.

#####